

Delta Incident Brief

Summary

A partial outage affected the delta ingestion tier for eleven minutes. Requests were shed by the load balancer while the tier was restarted. No data loss was observed and the backlog drained within the hour.

Follow Up

The restart procedure is now covered by an automated health probe. A capacity review is scheduled before the next seasonal peak.